About the Artist

Hector was born in Mexico. He entered the US illegally at the age of 14 and became involved in gangs and drugs. When he was 21 he was arrested for selling drugs. During his time in the Douglas County jail Hector came to faith in Christ. He was sentenced to 7 years in prison. During his prison term he continued to grow in faith. He pursued Biblical studies through the IFI (Inner-Change Freedom Initiative) program at the Lino Lakes Correctional Facility. Upon release from prison, Hector was deported to Mexico. He entered a ministry school in Puebla, Mexico. In the two years Hector has been out of prison he has completed the ministry school; become a full-time staff member at Living Hope International Ministries; married his new bride Esther; and with the support of his church, is opening a re-entry house in Puebla for men coming out of prison.
